

Gilda's Club Seattle's Lecture Series

June, 2009

Join us for many opportunities in June to learn about cancer.
Please call us for more information, or to register, at 206-709-1400.

6/4/09 Effective Communication with Patients: Beyond Racial Barriers

Learn about common communication barriers when working with clients of color, as well as ways to increase service effectiveness. 6:45 -8:30 PM, Thursday.

6/11/09 Complementary Medicine in Cancer Care: Which to Choose, and Why?

Nutrition, Naturopathy, Acupuncture, Chinese Medicine. . . Dan Labriola, ND, will share an overview of the complementary and alternative treatments most beneficial to cancer care. 6:45—8:30 pm, Thursday.

6/18/09 The Evolution of Highly Targeted Therapy for Leukemia and Lymphoma

Learn how the discovery of the molecular cause of CML has made possible more effective and less toxic therapies for blood cancers. A collaboration with the Swedish Cancer Institute and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Bring your questions. 6:45-8:30 PM, Thursday.

Free and open to the public.

At Gilda's Club Seattle, 1400 Broadway

Please RSVP 24 hours in advance to attend: 206-709-1400.

Children may play in Noogieland with 48 hours advanced RSVP.